

HEARTPOZER

RECORDED ON 14 JANUARY 2026, 4AM

I remember opening the session and doing the hook at 4AM, then completely forgetting what I'd said. I couldn't think at that point, and in a weird way that's the space I long for, because that's when I'm most creative.

I came back to the session around 9AM and finished the verses and the rest of the song. I really liked it because it was a happy vibe, and it sounded like something I'd be proud of over time.

Some of the best parts of a song come from a version of you that's too tired to overthink.
